Welcome

Set in a private Estate within the Norfolk countryside, The Old Stables at Shotesham Park offers a unique and tranquil setting for your wedding day. Just seven miles south of Norwich, this private Estate feels a world away from the bustle of the city, yet remains easily accessible for guests.

Steeped in history, the Estate has been lovingly cared for over generations. Today, The Old Stables combines the romance of Georgian architecture with sweeping lawns, ancient woodlands and elegant courtyard spaces, providing an enchanting backdrop for your celebration.

Whether you choose to marry indoors or beneath the open sky, every detail of your wedding will unfold in a setting defined by natural beauty, understated luxury, and a true sense of exclusivity.

Our History

Your celebration unfolds within a historic Estate that has been part of Norfolk's landscape for centuries.

In 1731, the Fellowes family purchased Shotesham Park, commissioning the renowned architect Sir John Soane to design the Georgian Hall and stable courtyard you see today. Every brick and beam holds the legacy of a time when craftsmanship and elegance shaped the finest homes.

After remaining in the Fellowes family for nearly 250 years, the Estate passed into new hands in 1979. A decade later, in 1989, the Bailey family made Shotesham Park their home. Over the past thirty years, they have lovingly restored the near-derelect hall, revitalised the farmland, and replanted the surrounding woodlands to preserve the Estate's natural beauty.

As you and your guests arrive along the sweeping driveway, you become part of this living story. A timeless setting now reserved exclusively for your day.

The illustration is an aerial view of a landscaped wedding venue. It features a large central meadow with diagonal hatching, surrounded by various trees in shades of green and yellow. A winding path or driveway is visible, along with a circular area containing several tall, thin trees. In the bottom right, there is a parking area with a car and a street lamp. Three specific locations are highlighted with numbered circles: 9 in the central meadow, 10 in the bottom right parking area, and 13 in the top left wooded area.

The space can be styled to suit your vision, with traditional round tables, long banquet-style seating, or a combination of both. For couples wishing to personalise their tables, upgraded options are available, including coloured linens, classic charger plates and elegant tableware enhancements through our trusted supplier list.

Before you and your guests are welcomed in, our dedicated team ensures the room is set perfectly, from lighting candles and arranging centrepieces to checking every place setting is in place. Throughout the meal, our wedding service team oversee every detail, ensuring each guest is served their chosen dishes and that you, as the couple, are attentively looked after.

The Carriage House transforms beautifully throughout the day, offering a light-filled celebration that softens into an intimate evening meal as the candles are lit - before the music and dancing begin in the Oak Room.

We recommend that you choose one starter, one main course and one dessert. Please take a look in our catering brochure for choice menus and bespoke options.

Yes, allergen, vegan and vegetarian adapted menus are available to guests with dietary requirements at no extra charge.

I have a copy of an old menu/ catering brochure but would like a dish from the new menus, is that possible?

You are welcome to mix and match dishes from any of our brochures.

Can we bring our own caterers?

It is essential that we provide a consistently high standard of catering at our venue and therefore only allow our in-house experienced chefs on your wedding day, who offer an exceptionally high level of service using quality locally-sourced ingredients.

This excludes catering the night before; you are welcome to book catering externally to provide this as long as they are self-contained and do not require use of our kitchens or other resources.

What table layout can we have?

Yes, you can only bring your own wine, prosecco or champagne and there will be no reduction in cost of the package. If you would like more wine, prosecco or champagne on top of what we offer in the package, then you can bring this for a corkage charge of £9.50 per bottle. Alternatively, we have an extensive wine list at competitive prices. You can also bring one 50ml alcoholic favour per person at no extra charge.

We recommend that you provide any suppliers spending more than five hours at your wedding with a meal. Most suppliers will also outline their requirements for food and drink in their booking contract.

Can we make any changes to the package?

You can add on to the package but cannot remove any items. You can only increase the amount of guests; our price list outlines the minimum amount of guests you will pay for.

What is involved in the tasting event?

We believe that it is very important for you to sample the fantastic food from our menu before your big day. We hold a tasting event to give couples an understanding of service, food and presentation when catering at a large scale.

Private one-on-one tastings are not offered as these do not accurately reflect the experience that you would enjoy at your wedding.

If your wedding is booked with less than 9 months to go, we may not be able to offer you a tasting. However, our head chef is available to speak with, if needed.

What is on the menu for the tasting event?

This is chosen months in advance and it is our chef's choice from the standard menu and the upgrade menus. Please see more details of the event in our catering brochure.

What menu is available for children?

Children can either have a half portion of your main meal or eat from the children's menu.

What constitutes a child?

Anyone eating a smaller version of the meal or a children's dish.

Can I bring my own food to our wedding?

You're welcome to bring in wedding cakes, sweets, and favours on place settings. We do not allow you to bring any other food on site for your wedding.

If you are providing anything that is not covered by a supplier's insurance, you will be required to sign a waiver form. Please note we do not allow nuts on site.
